Youth Camps (Ages: 8 - 15)

The focus of our volleyball camps is on developing the basic skills of the younger player. Courts within each session will be divided into age groups. Players will be further divided by ability levels to maximize individual improvement. High School players should attend the Sports Performance Volleyball Camps held at UMD in July.

Camps will concentrate on:

Serving	Passing	Setting
Attacking	Defense	Ball Control
Court Movement

2009 Summer Volleyball Camps at the University of Michigan-Dearborn

The Department of Athletics & Recreation at the University of Michigan-Dearborn offers youth volleyball camps for players each summer. The camps are directed by coaches from our collegiate program with qualified assistant coaches. Each camp offers a fun and competitive environment for athletes to learn and improve their skills.

Within each camp, players are further divided by both age and by ability level - from beginner to advanced. High school players desiring an all day camp, should plan to attend the Sports Performance Volleyball Camps held at UMD from Aug 3-7. Their website is: greatlakescenter.com.
