

Learning Community

COLLEGE OF ARTS,
SCIENCES, & LETTERS
THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN-DEARBORN

a suite of 3 or 4 courses in which the same cohort of students addresses the same broad theme from different disciplinary perspectives across 3 or 4 consecutive terms . . .
like a Residential College without the residence,
like an Honor's program without honors admissions.

LEARNING COMMUNITY STARTING FALL 2004

WELL-BEHAVED WOMEN RARELY MAKE HISTORY: UNDERSTANDING WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP AND SOCIAL CHANGE

Why is it that we still don't see more women as leaders of our country, or even of our local communities? Perhaps it is because women's achievements are often left out of the history books! In this learning community, students focus on the important things that women have done to change the world, while at the same time learning about different leadership styles and building their own leadership skills. Some of the questions we will examine in these courses include:

- What are the major achievements of women in business, culture and politics?
- Do men and women have different leadership styles?
- How do women's movements create social change?
- When will a woman be elected President of the United States?
- What is the future of women's leadership on the local, national and global stage?

Coordinator:	Prof. Suzanne Bergeron (sbergero@umich.edu) Women's Studies and Social Sciences
Other Faculty:	Prof. Georgina Hickey, History; Prof. Marie Waung, Psychology
First Course:	Women's Studies 275 Introduction to Women's Studies	(Fall 2004)	Prof. Bergeron
Second Course:	History 3651 Women, Leadership and Social Change	(Winter 2005)	Prof. Hickey
Third Course:	Psychology 390 Women and Organizations	(Fall 2005)	Prof. Waung
Fourth Course:	(optional) Political Science 362 Women, Politics and Law	(Winter 2006)	Prof. Bergeron

May be used to satisfy which requirements on completion?

- History – general education requirement
- Social and Behavioral Analysis A – general education requirement
- CASL Diversity Requirement
- Composition 106