

Position: Assistant Professor of Biology
Salary: Unspecified
Institution: University of Michigan-Dearborn
Location: Michigan Date posted: 8/28/2006

Biology: Assistant Professor of Biology. The Department of Natural Sciences invites applications for a tenure track Assistant Professor with a focus on the Biology of Organisms, beginning in Fall 2007. Teaching duties include Introductory Organismal and Environmental Biology lecture, laboratory and upper division undergraduate/graduate courses in the applicant's specialty such as: Biotechnology, Ecology, Life Science Inquiry, or Neurobiology. Area of research is not specified, but should connect to the departmental strengths in molecular/cellular biology, environmental science and/or science education.

The successful applicant is expected to develop and maintain an active research program leading to peer-reviewed publications. We encourage the Assistant Professor to engage students in supervised research. A research lab, modest start-up funds and teaching release time are available. Doctorate and commitment to both teaching and research are required.

Send letter of application including statement of teaching philosophy and research plan, curriculum vitae and names of three references to Biology Search Committee, Department of Natural Sciences, University of Michigan-Dearborn, 4901 Evergreen Road, Dearborn, Michigan 48128. Review of applications will begin December 1, 2006. Contact Admin Asst. Roxanne Wiltshire wiltshi@umd.umich.edu with questions.

The UM-D Department of Natural Sciences includes biology, chemistry, physics and specialized programs in biochemistry, Earth sciences, environmental science and microbiology (<http://casl.umd.umich.edu/natsci/>).

The University of Michigan-Dearborn is dedicated to the goal of building a culturally diverse and pluralistic faculty committed to teaching and working in a multicultural environment and strongly encourages applications from minorities and women. The University Michigan-Dearborn is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.

Contact Information:
Biology Search Committee
Department of Natural Sciences
University of Michigan-Dearborn
4901 Evergreen Road
Dearborn, MI 48128
Categories: Biology/life sciences