

DEARBORN ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDE

Section: Faculty and Staff
Subject: Faculty and Staff Assistance Program (FASAP)
Issued by: Counseling and Support Services
Number: 201.14
Date Revised: 12/2007

---

This service, located in Counseling and Support Services and jointly administered with the Human Resources Office, is designed to help faculty and staff deal with various problems of daily living and family relationships. Through this program, a counselor can offer assistance in identifying a particular interpersonal, social or emotional difficulty. If necessary, a referral is made to an appropriate community agency or mental health professional. The highest confidentiality is accorded all counselor/employee relationships.
