INDIVIDUAL SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Requirements listed are in addition to the general requirements that appear in the application form. Any exceptions will be noted.

ACADEMIC INTERNSHIP TUITION SCHOLARSHIP

The purpose of this award is to recognize academic achievements of UM-D students, and to support, through tuition stipend, the participation in off-campus non-paid academic internship experiences which enhance the students' educational and career objectives. This scholarship is intended to support those internship programs which are non-paid and which yield university credit. The scholarship money awarded will be applied toward tuition costs for the internship course.

Applicants must have achieved Sophomore standing (25 CR), and be enrolled in an internship for the term in which he/she is applying.

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

This award recognizes superior academic achievement by degree-seeking students enrolled in a graduate program and seeks to encourage students to enroll in graduate programs. Awards will be based on academic achievement, expectations for continued achievement, academic and career goals, and financial need.

Applicants must submit a resume that includes professional and academic achievements (e.g. papers, awards, etc.), as well as community and/or service activities.

AFRICAN-AMERICAN ALUMNI AFFILIATE BOOK SCHOLARSHIP

The purpose of this scholarship is to recognize outstanding leadership achievement of African American students enrolled at UM-D.

Applicants must have completed at least 12 credit hours at the University of Michigan -Dearborn, a cumulative 2.5 GPA, and will be selected based on academic achievement, demonstrated involvement and leadership abilities on campus or in the community, scholarly research, artistic creations or inventions. Both full and part-time students are eligible to apply.

ALUMNI LEGACY SCHOLARSHIP

The purpose of the Alumni Legacy Scholarship is to perpetuate the legacy of the University of Michigan-Dearborn tradition by funding scholarships for those with close familial or other significant relationships to University of Michigan-Dearborn Alumni.

Applicants must demonstrate an important familial relationship (e.g. spouse, child, sibling, grandchild) or other significant relationship to an alumnus/a of UM-D (e.g. an applicant raised by an alumnus/a; but not a neighbor or a close friend of an alumnus/a), and exhibit sustained activity and/or achievement in academic, extracurricular, co-curricular, community, and/or leadership activities. Applicants must submit a letter of nomination written by the UM-D alumnus/a with whom the familial relationship exists. Scholarship finalists will be invited to participate in an interview session with the Alumni Society Scholarship Committee.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN (AAUW) SCHOLARSHIP

The AAUW Scholarship provides incentive awards to women whose education has been interrupted and are now enrolled a degree-seeking program.

Applicants must be women who have had at least a two-year interruption in their education, and are at least 25 years of age.

BARNES AND NOBLE BOOK SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship program is sponsored by the University of Michigan-Dearborn Barnes and Noble Bookstore. This program is intended to help defray the costs of college attendance by assisting students with the cost of books. Awards are drawn from individual book accounts established for the recipients at the UM-D Bookstore for the purpose of purchasing textbooks "only".

SELMA BAUMGARTEN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship has been established to help students in financial need who might otherwise not be able to complete their studies and who in some measure share the values held by Mrs. Baumgarten and her strong belief in the power of higher education to transform lives. She felt that all people should have the opportunity to improve themselves and their ability to help others through education.

Applicants must demonstrate a love of learning and dedication to public service. Preference will be given to students majoring in or planning in fields within CASL or School of Education. Particular consideration will be given to participants in the SOAR program.

DR. JOACHIM “KIM” BRAUHN SCHOLARSHIP FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDY

This Scholarship was established to recognize scholastic achievement, to encourage continued progress, and specifically to provide opportunities for students to build on their classroom experience and learn about the world through study abroad. The award may only be used for a UM-Dearborn approved international study/study abroad program.

CASL ALUMNI AFFILIATE SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship program is sponsored by the Alumni Affiliate of the College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters. This program is intended to recognize the superior academic achievement of students enrolled in degree programs in the College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters.

Applicants must have achieved Sophomore standing (25 CR), a cumulative 3.25 GPA, and are required to submit a recommendation from a College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters faculty member who is familiar with their academic ability.

CASL EMERITI FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established by a group of College of Arts, Sciences and Letters Emeriti faculty. This program is intended to recognize scholastic achievement, to encourage continued academic progress, and to provide assistance to students in financing their education.

Applicants must have been accepted for study in the College of Arts, Science and Letters and have achieved junior or senior status, with preference given to seniors, minimum of 3.0 GPA and demonstrate qualities of leadership.

JOHN DEMPSEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship was established in memory of Dr. Dempsey, a former professor of political science at UM-D who also served as Director of Budget for the State of Michigan and Director of the Michigan Department of Social Services. Applicants must have completed a minimum of 60 credit hours and be enrolled full-time (12CR+) in a political science program.

DR. GEORGE AND ISABELLE ELANJIAN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The scholarship was established by Dr. George and Isabelle Elanjian to support students of Armenian descent.

Applicants must be of Armenian descent, full-time students (12CR+), and must have completed 24 CR at UM-D. Applicants will be required to submit a recommendation from a community leader and demonstrate voluntary leadership contributions to the community. Preference will be given to applicants of 100% Armenian descent; however, no applicant may be less than 50% Armenian descent.

DR. LINDA FISHER MEMORIAL ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established to recognize, to encourage continued progress, and to provide assistance to students majoring in the natural science at the University of Michigan – Dearborn. The applicant must be junior or senior status concentrating in one of the Undergraduate degree programs in the Natural Sciences Department. Some preference will be given to those concentrating in Microbiology.

GENERAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship has a dual function: 1) to reward superior academic achievement, and 2) to help students with the financial burden of attending college.

Applicants may be degree-seeking undergraduate or graduate students at UM-D. Students taking fewer than 12 hours (undergraduate) or 6 hours (graduate) must provide a letter of justification, explaining why they are not a full-time student, but will still be considered.

JANET AND CYNTHIA HEWITT SCHOLARSHIP FOR WOMEN

The purpose of this scholarship is to assist non-traditional female students who are single parents; displaced homemakers; women who have lost their major source of support and who need to re-enter the job market, such as separated, divorced, or widowed; older women; and women seeking training for more highly skilled work.

Applicants must be female students who are single parents, displaced homemakers, and are separated, divorced, or widowed; have a cumulative 2.6 GPA; and are U.S. citizens and residents of Michigan.

JUDGE THOMAS A. AND HELEN VAN TIEM SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholarship was established by Judge Thomas A. and Helen Van Tiem to ensure that Early Childhood Education receives the emphasis it should have in academia and the community at large. The scholarship will be awarded to a student in the School of Education, Early Childhood Education program.

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES TUITION SCHOLARSHIP

The purpose of this scholarship is to support those programs which provide an academic experience in a foreign country, in recognition of the unique intellectual, career and personal growth opportunities that such a program can provide. The scholarship money awarded will be applied toward tuition costs for all UM-D sponsored programs. For students who are studying abroad in conjunction with a college or university other than UM-D, the scholarship money will be applied to tuition costs at UM-D for the academic term following the foreign study.

Applicants must have achieved Sophomore standing (25 CR), and be enrolled in an approved international study program. Students in foreign language programs must provide a form verifying attendance at a foreign institution. The form must be signed by a faculty member.

WILLIAM AND ALICE JENKINS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship is in honor of Dr. William Jenkins, second Chancellor of UM-D, and his wife Mrs. Alice Jenkins. The scholarship serves a dual function: 1) to reward superior academic achievement, and 2) to help students with the financial burden of attending college. Therefore, while merit will be the primary criterion, financial need will also be a factor in the selection process.

Applicants must have achieved Junior standing (55 CR). Current recipients of a full tuition remission scholarship are not eligible for this award. Two scholarships are awarded annually, with one specifically earmarked for a qualified student belonging to one of the groups designated as "targets of diversity" in the UM-D Diversity Plan.

GRACE AND EVELYN KACHATUROFF SCHOLARSHIP

This Scholarship was created by Grace and Evelyn Kachaturoff in honor of their parents and family who were and are committed to public education.

Applicants must be enrolled in the elementary and/or secondary education program in the humanities and/or the social sciences. Recipients must demonstrate a strong commitment to public education K-12. Recipients must have achieved Junior standing and will be selected on the basis of scholastic achievement, cumulative grade point average of 3.5 and qualities of demonstrated leadership skills.

JAMES AND MAY BELL LOEB SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship was established in memory of James and May Bell Loeb to recognize outstanding scholastic achievement. Applicants must have a cumulative 3.5 GPA.

MINORITY RECOGNITION SCHOLARSHIP

The purpose of this scholarship is to recognize outstanding leadership achievement of minority students enrolled at UM-D. Applicants must have achieved Sophomore standing (25 CR), a cumulative 2.5 GPA, and will be selected based on academic achievement, demonstrated involvement and leadership abilities on campus or in the community, scholarly research, artistic creations or inventions.

RETURNING WOMAN SCHOLARSHIP

The purpose of this scholarship is to assist women who have had at least a two year interruption in their education, and wish to return to college in order to complete a degree. There is no age requirement for this scholarship.

RICHARD REYNOLDS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship recognizes demonstrated achievement of UM-D students in the fields of journalism, public relations, advertising and related areas of mass communications.

Applicants must have achieved Sophomore standing with at least 30 CR completed at UM-D, and have demonstrated achievement in mass communications or related areas. Students must provide a written sample of this achievement.

SIDELL SLOSBERG SORSCHER AND SAMUEL SORSCHER SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship was established to recognize scholastic achievement, to encourage continued progress and provide assistance to students in financing their education. To assist those students from parents, family or spouse is non-existent or marginal. Special consideration will be given to students with refugee status.

Students must be enrolled full time, GPA requirement of 3.5 or better and demonstrate financial need.

SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDENT'S SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship is funded through generous gifts by Alumni and friends of The University of Michigan-Dearborn School of Education. The purpose of the program is to support master's level study in Special Education.

Applicants must have a minimum cumulative 3.5 GPA (4.0 scales), must have completed 10 CR in the Master's of Education in Special Education program, and be seeking endorsement in either LD or EL.

VELDA D. TAYLOR SCHOLARSHIP FOR RETURNING WOMEN

The scholarship has been established by Deborah Taylor, in memory of her late mother. The purpose of the scholarship is to assist returning women students.

Applicants must be women who have at least a two-year interruption in their education, are at least 25 years of age, and are committed to full-time (12CR+) study. Preference will be given to students majoring in a human service field.

AL TURFE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

This Scholarship was established to recognize, encourage continued progress and retention of, and provide assistance to students in the College of Arts, Science and Letters at the University of Michigan – Dearborn.

RICHARD A. YOUNG PUBLIC SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship was established in honor of Representative Young's thirty years of service and leadership in the Michigan Legislature. The program recognizes outstanding upperclassmen with a record of service to their community.

Applicants must have achieved Junior standing (55 CR), and have demonstrated leadership through volunteerism, including service in community or religious organizations, politics, and/or other community activities. Applicants will be required to submit a recommendation from a community leader with direct knowledge and experience of the applicant's community service. Awards may not be applied toward costs associated with participation in a Political Internship Program.
