

2008 Alumni Awards

Nominations are now being accepted for the annual University of Michigan-Dearborn Alumni Society Awards. This year's recipients will be honored at the annual Alumni Society Awards Luncheon on April 13, 2008 at the UM-Dearborn Fairlane Center South.

The awards program includes five categories that honor outstanding UM-Dearborn alumni and faculty. Following are the criteria for each of the awards:

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS/A OF THE YEAR: presented to a graduate of UM-Dearborn who has demonstrated outstanding personal service and/or contribution to the betterment of the University and its community over a period of years; demonstrated outstanding community service and leadership, distinguished service or accomplishment in any field of human endeavor; or for personal accomplishments which enhance the prestige of the University.

ALUMNI SERVICE AWARD: presented to a graduate of UM-Dearborn who has demonstrated outstanding personal services to the University and its community over a period of years, and has demonstrated exemplary service to the Alumni Society.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD: presented to an individual who has significantly benefited the University through active participation in volunteer activities, government service or civic organizations; demonstrated outstanding community service and leadership; or devoted time and effort toward activities that benefit the general public, with a specific focus on education.

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH AND SCHOLARSHIP AWARD: presented to a graduate of UM-Dearborn who has published articles, journals or other materials that contribute significantly to knowledge in the relevant field; and who has demonstrated outstanding creative or artistic effort, or research accomplishments, or business or professional achievement.

FACULTY MEMBER OF THE YEAR: presented to a member of the UM-Dearborn faculty for achievement of professional or civic efforts which have brought about a greater appreciation of the University's place in the community; published articles, journals or other materials that contribute significantly to knowledge in the relevant field; or demonstrated outstanding creative or artistic effort, or outstanding research accomplishments.
